

Public cell phone use should be restricted, not expanded, especially on aircraft. Nobody on earth needs to talk so much that they have to violate a person's right to privacy in a confined space.